

GESKIEDENIS

'n Wiskundige los probleme op en 'n geskiedkundige los die oorsaak van die probleme op.

Vir politici is die kennis van geskiedenis van kardinale belang, sodat hulle nie foute van die verlede herhaal nie.

Navorsing wat in Engeland gedoen is, het getoon dat 80% van die hoof uitvoerende beamptes van die top maatskappye in Brittanje, geskiedenis as vak op skool of universiteit gehad het.

In Gr12 moet leerders twee 3uur vraestelle beantwoord. Daar is brongebasseerde vrae (spotprente, koerantartikels en fotos waarvoor vrae gestel word) en opstelvrae.

Geskiedenis is van belang vir persone wat belangstel om loopbane te volg in een van die volgende rigtings:

1. Politiek
2. Buitelandse Sake
3. Joernalistiek
4. Regte
5. Onderwys

“ n Volk wat nie sy Geskiedenis ken nie, is soos 'n boom wat se wortels besig is om dood te gaan.”

HISTORY

A mathematician solves problems, a historian solves the cause of the problems.

For politicians history is of utmost importance in order not to repeat the mistakes of the past.

A survey done in England revealed that 80% of CEO's in the top British companies had history as a subject at school or at university.

In Gr 12 learners have to answer two 3 hour papers. There are source-based (cartoons, newspaper articles and photos on which questions are asked) and essay questions.

History can be of use for people who intend following a career in the following:

- 1. Politics
- 2. Foreign Affairs
- 3. Journalism
- 4. Law
- 5. Education

“A nation that does not know its History, is like a tree whose roots are busy dying.”
